Subject: Advisory for Candidates Regarding Dress Code and Permissible Items at Examination Centres for NEET (UG) 2026 Re-Examination - reg.

National Testing Agency (NTA) will conduct the National Eligibility-cum-Entrance Test [NEET (UG)]-2026 Examination on 21.06.2026 at examination centres across the country. All candidates appearing for the examination are advised to carefully note the following instructions regarding dress code and permissible items:

- All candidates are permitted to carry transparent water bottles inside the examination hall.
- Candidates can carry their admit card in transparent plastic pouches to avoid damage due to rains.
- Candidates are permitted to wear articles or objects of faith (including religious symbols, kalawas, turbans, hijabs, or similar items), subject to reporting at the examination centre well in advance to facilitate thorough frisking by examination staff.
- While light clothing is preferred, candidates may wear full-sleeve garments or woollen if required, subject to reporting to the centre well in advance to enable thorough frisking.
- Slippers and low-heeled footwear are the preferred category of footwear. Candidates wearing high-heeled footwear may be subjected to additional checks.
- Candidates are strictly prohibited from carrying any electronic devices, including mobile phones, smartwatches, Bluetooth accessories, earphones, or any communication device, inside the examination hall.
- Metallic items, large belt buckles, heavy jewellery, and accessories are not permitted inside the examination hall.
- All candidates will be subject to mandatory frisking before entry. Candidates are advised to report at the centre at the scheduled reporting time to facilitate smooth security checks without undue stress.

For any clarification related to NEET (UG)-2026 Re-Examination, candidates may contact the NTA Helpdesk at 011-40759000 / 011-69227700 or write to neetug2026@nta.ac.in.

All candidates are requested to adhere to the above advisory and cooperate fully with the examination staff for smooth and secure conduct of the re-examination. Non-compliance with the dress code and security protocols may result in denial of entry.

NTA extends its best wishes to all candidates appearing for the NEET (UG)-2026 Re-Examination.
